ANTHONY COMSTOCK COMING
Walter C. Weedon has received the following letter from the celebrated Anthony Comstock, which explains itself. Mr. and Mrs. Weedon have invited Mr. Comstock to accept their hospitality:

Breeze Crest Summit, N. J., February 21, 1902.
I want to acknowledge several papers which you have sent, which we have received, and greatly appreciate them. I am beginning to desire to see the wonderful islands and wonderful peoples.

What is the best and cheapest route from here. How expensive are your hotels for a man and wife, say for a couple of weeks?

How long does it take from here to Honolulu? Very truly yours,
ANTHONY COMSTOCK.

ROBBER OFF LIGHTLY

YOUNG PORTO RICAN BOY WHO STOLE IRON SAFE

Receiver Wundenberg Allowed One Thousand Dollars and Ordered to Sell Out Kona Sugar Co. if not Paid.

Manuel Claudina, a Porto Rican boy, was found guilty of larceny second degree. Judge Robinson sentenced him to be imprisoned for thirty days without hard labor. The prisoner was caught in the act of stealing an iron safe and some clothes from Mrs. Hough's house in Richards street. Through the interpreter, before being sentenced, the prisoner said he was fifteen years of age and had been in the country a year. He claimed that he did not come here voluntarily but had been stolen from home and shipped to Honolulu along with a lot of other Porto Ricans. His occupation, he said, was that of a circus actor, and though he was willing to work he hadn't been given the opportunity to exercise his peculiar talents in Hawaii up to the present time.

Judge Humphreys was obliged to enter a mistrial in the case of John D. Paris vs. J. A. Magoon, administrator of the estate of Antoine Fernandes, on account of inability of the jury to agree after being out all night and half the day.

Fred Wundenberg rendered his account as receiver of Kona Sugar Co. before Judge Humphreys yesterday afternoon. His expenses amounted to $5071.69. The court approved the account and allowed the receiver a fee of $1000, ordering him to sell the entire property of the company ten days after March 15 if both amounts were not by that date paid to him. Should the payments be made in time, the bill for receivership will be dismissed and the receiver discharged.

Testimony at the closing of both sides in the condemnation suit yesterday had relation chiefly to the value of buildings on the Honolulu Plantation Company's land. On this point evidence was ruled out at the first trial. The United States put on Chief Carpenter Pender of the Honolulu naval station, who valued the building by items at $5889.40. E. Ward and William Wagner for defendant made the valuation from $13,000 to $15,000. The jury is visiting the premises today in charge of Marshal E. R. Hendry, who knows the way round from having accompanied two juries previously.

O. R. & L. OFFICERS.

The adjourned annual meeting of the O. R. & L. Co. was held in the room above Castle & Cooke's office yesterday afternoon. The consideration of the new by-laws took up the majority of the time. They were finally adopted as prepared by the road's attorneys. The following officers were chosen to serve during the ensuing year: President, S. C. Allen; first vice president, J. B. Atherton; second vice president, W. F. Allen; secretary, A. W. Van Valkenburg; treasurer, M. P. Robinson; auditor, A. W. Van Valkenburg; directors, H. M. von Holt, E. E. Paxton, W. F. Dillingham, S. E. Damon.
